

Anthony F. Laurence - Troop G

Trooper Anthony F. Laurence, 28, was killed instantly on July 27, 1935 in a traffic accident two miles south of Bolton Landing.

Witnesses stated that the motorcycle Trooper Laurence was operating suddenly lurched and swerved and Trooper Laurence's left leg flew up from the cycle before the cycle left the road and struck a tree head-on.

Trooper Laurence joined the State Police in October 1928 and served in Cooperstown before he was transferred to Troy in August 1933. At the time of his death, Trooper Laurence was assigned to a special traffic detail at the Gold Cup Races at Lake George.
