

Emily M. Taber Hance

January 10, 2009 Emily M. Taber Hance, 68, of Hastings, passed away Saturday, January 10, 2009, at University Hospital, Syracuse, after a courageous battle with cancer. Born in Constantia, she had lived in Hastings since 1975 and was formerly employed at Waterfront Restaurant in Brewerton. Emily loved to ride motorcycle and was an avid bingo player. Surviving are her companion of 30 years, Harold "Jim" Miner; a daughter, Doreen Tryon of Hastings; a son, Dave Hance of Hastings; three grandchildren, Ben and Jacob Parker and Christina Hance; a great-granddaughter-to-be, Lily Jade Parker; five sisters, Deborah Taylor, Mary Simmons, Brenda Ellis, Luella Scott and Christie Smith; four brothers, Grover "Sonny" Taber, Fred Taber, Albert "Bucky" Taber and Sherman Taber; and several nieces and nephews.