

Frank J. May

June 30, 2004 Frank J. May, 66, of Cicero, died Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital. He was a native of North Syracuse and a longtime resident of the area. He was an Air Force veteran, and attended Sacred Heart Church in Cicero. He was a machine repair-man at New Process Gear. He was an avid Harley man, he loved his motorcycle and his new red Corvette. He was a great guy, loved jokes, was quiet and devoted to his family. Surviving are two sons, Frank of Cicero, Kary; and a daughter-in-law, Jamie May of Flowery Branch, Georgia; a brother, Thomas of Cicero; and two sisters, Mary May and Diana; and a brother-in-law, Dick Webb of Cicero; two granddaughters, Mackenzie May and Chelsea Rosenberger; and several nieces and nephews.