

Joseph Wiedenbeck III

June 9, 2008 Joseph J. Wiedenbeck III, 41, of Cicero, formerly of Brewerton, passed away Monday following a tragic motorcycle accident. Joe worked as a propane manager for Oneida Lake Energy Products since 1994 and worked part time as a sales agent with Prudential Real Estate. Joe was a founding member of the Oneida Lake Companies, LLC. He was a member of the NYS Propane Gas Association, the Muscular Dystrophy Association, where he received a nomination for Persons of the Year Award in January 2008, and a past member of the Rotary Club of Oneida Shores. He was an avid bicyclist, participating frequently in the American Diabetes Association cycling events. Joe was predeceased by his mother, Rosemary, in July 2006 and his father-in-law, Eugene Gould in 1997. He is survived by his loving wife of 14 years, Rochelle (Gould) Wiedenbeck; three children, Amanda, Cory and Conner Wiedenbeck; father, Joseph J. Wiedenbeck; mother-in-law, Mary Gould; sister, Susan Wiedenbeck; several nieces, nephews and cousins; and many loving friends.
