

Owen "Tommy" Fowler

Owen "Tommy" T. Fowler, 55, of Baldwinsville, died July 19, 2003 in Boonville. He was born in Syracuse and was a 1965 graduate of C. W. Baker High School, Baldwinsville. He graduated from Mohawk Valley Community College in 1967 and worked as a construction contractor for several years in Connecticut, Florida and New York. He was at one time an avid bowler and sportsman, but most recently enjoyed the hobby of woodworking and was active in the Sawdust & Woodchips Woodworking Association in Baldwinsville. He was predeceased by his father, Owen W. Fowler in 1976. Surviving are his mother, Ruth S. Fowler; a sister, Conne F. Hudson and her husband, John; a nephew, Greg J. Hudson and his wife, Cathy; a grand-nephew, Scott O. Hudson, and a Rottweiler companion, Elsa, all of Baldwinsville as well as several aunts, uncles and cousins.

