

Phillip E. Gonterman - Troop D

Trooper Phillip E. Gonterman, 24, was killed instantly on the evening of September 25, 1925 when his motorcycle struck a tree at the intersection of Jefferson and Hubble Streets in the Village of Pulaski. Trooper Gonterman was attempting to overtake a stolen vehicle when a second car pulled from a side street into his path. He swerved his motorcycle to avoid the car, lost control and crashed.

Trooper Gonterman was a two-year veteran assigned to the Pulaski Station.
