

Raymond J. Chippendale - Troop B

Trooper Raymond J. Chippendale, 27, was fatally injured while operating his motorcycle on the Watertown-Carthage Road near the Village of Carthage. The accident occurred at the same curve on which another Trooper had been injured just two years before.

Trooper Chippendale joined the Division of State Police on June 1, 1930, and had been recently transferred to the Adams station.