

Terry Richardson

Terry C. Richardson, 59 of Fulton, died Saturday resulting from a motorcycle accident in Madison County. A native of Fulton, he resided there most of his life. Terry was a senior custodian a Lanigan Elementary School and had worked for the Fulton School District for the past 18 years. He was a member, current vice president and road captain of the Christian Motorcyclists Association which is involved with much charity work. Terry enjoyed fishing, camping, golf, and antique sales. He was predeceased by his parents, Seymour and Rita Richardson; brother, Daniel Richardson and sister, Pamela Rodebach. Surviving are his wife of 11 years, Joyce Richardson; children, Eric, Joy and Brent Richardson; step-children, Nicholas and Kayla Huffman; siblings, Andrew, Paul, Martin, Melvin, Matthew Richardson and Lissa McCarthy; five grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

