

Wayne A. Priest

Wayne A. Priest May 23, 2010 Wayne A. Priest, 39, of Parish died Sunday from injuries in a motorcycle accident in Redfield. He was a loving husband and father. He was a self-employed auto body technician. Surviving: wife, the former Tonya Wheeler; four sons, Wayne J. of Parish, Wes of Parish, Tyler of Parish, Hunter of Parish; four stepsons, Kaine Shaw of Parish, Devon Shaw of Parish, Isaac Shaw of Parish; Mason Shaw of Parish; Father and Stepmother, Ronald and Cheryl Priest of Parish; Mother and Stepfather, Glenda and Bill Holland of Hastings; two brothers, David Clark of Central Square, Ronald Priest Jr. of Parish; four sisters, Penny Priest of Central Square, Tina Priest-Mora of Mallory, Lucinda Farmer of Pulaski, Doris Priest of Mallory.

A vertical postcard with a dark blue and black background. At the top, a silhouette of a wolf sits on a rock against a cloudy sky. The text is in white and blue. The title 'WAYNE PRIEST MEMORIAL RUN' is in white, with 'Love Wolf' in a blue script font below it. The date 'SUNDAY MAY 22ND 2011' is in white. Below that, 'OPEN TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS' is in blue, followed by 'STARTS AT EZZE TRUCK STOP · I-81 AND RT.104' and 'KICKSTANDS UP AT NOON.' in white. At the bottom, 'A FEW STOPS AT WAYNE'S FAVORITE SPOTS WITH MEMORIAL SERVICE NEAR THE RESERVOIR.' is in blue, flanked by two blue paw prints. A small disclaimer 'No Bad Attitudes. We Reserve The Right To Refuse Anyone.' is at the very bottom in white.

WAYNE PRIEST MEMORIAL RUN
"Love Wolf"
SUNDAY MAY 22ND 2011
OPEN TO FAMILY AND FRIENDS
STARTS AT EZZE TRUCK STOP · I-81 AND RT.104
KICKSTANDS UP AT NOON.
A FEW STOPS AT WAYNE'S FAVORITE SPOTS
WITH MEMORIAL SERVICE NEAR THE RESERVOIR.
No Bad Attitudes. We Reserve The Right To Refuse Anyone.