

Eugene E. "Animal" Monica

Eugene E. Animal Monica, of Bradenton, FL, passed away September 21, 2008, at home with his loving family by his side after a 19-month battle with pancreatic cancer. Born in Black River, NY, Eugene is survived by his wife of 25 years, Sheila Samuels Monica; daughters, Carrie (Robert) Albro-Walden of Bradenton and Marnie (Leslie) Webb of Syracuse, New York; sons, Damon Johnson of Bradenton and Eugene (Niki) Monica Jr. of Watertown, New York. He is also survived by his mother, Elma Monica; brothers, Roger Sr. and Robert Monica; sisters, Betty Jo Brown, Janet Monica, Martha Powers and Barbara Church. Eugene was also the loving grandfather to Kaylene, Kaleb, and Angel Brennan Walden and Devin, Austin and Olivia Monica. He was an avid motorcycle rider and was a member of the original 13 Night Stalkers & Dressers of America. Eugene served in the U.S. Navy from 1972 to 1976 and was a member of the V.F.W.

