

John Richard "LJ" Maloney

October 30, 2007 John Richard "LJ" Maloney, 60, of Jamesville, died Tuesday at the Buffalo VA Medical Center. He was born in Watertown, the son of John Patrick and Doris Lee Maloney who, along with his three children, John Richard Patrick, Matthew Brian Todd and Laurie Ann Maloney, and his sister, Sylvia Lewis, predeceased him. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War. He worked as a truck and taxi driver and as an animal control agent. He loved Harley-Davidson and belonged to several Harley riders' groups. Surviving are three children, Michelle Sherwood of Fulton, Bambi Lynn McDonald of Mattydale and Albert Maloney of Syracuse; a sister, Vivian Presley of Syracuse; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

