

Michael L. "151 Mike" Croffut

January 31, 2008 Michael L. Croffut, 47, of Bridgeport, died Thursday. Mike was a graduate of Henninger High School and of Onondaga Community College, and he also attended LeMoyne College. He was employed with the Center for Community Alternatives as an employment services specialist. Mike enjoyed life to the fullest. He was an avid motorcyclist who loved antiquing, camping, traveling and being with his family. His daughter Paige was the joy of his life. He made people laugh every place he went and loved to be the center of attention. He was known for his Boss Hoss motorcycle and helmet with horns. Mike will be greatly missed by all the lives he has touched. His father, Ronald A., predeceased him in 1997. Survivors include his daughter, Paige Croffut; his companion, Wendy Roberts; his mother, Joann C. Croffut of Syracuse; his sisters, Cynthia Croffut and Colleen (Steve) Heinrich, both of Syracuse, and Annette (Peter) Saule of Liverpool; and many nieces and nephews.
