

Philip A. Contos

Philip A. Contos July 2, 2011 Philip A. Contos, 55, of Parish, New York, died suddenly on July 2, 2011. Born in Syracuse he graduated from Thomas J. Corcoran High School. He served in the U.S. Army, he then attended BOCES for carpentry classes and graduated from National Tractor Trailer School of Liverpool. He was an avid sportsman competing in archery, fishing, and hunting. He was currently employed by J. K. Tobin construction. Philip was predeceased by his father, William Contos, 1992, mother Rosalind Contos, 1994, and brother-in-law Steven Zory, 1997. He is survived by his sister Janet Zory of Camillus; a brother, Richard (Kathryn) of Liverpool; and several nephews and nieces, Aaron, Carolyn, and Brian, who is currently serving in the U. S. Air Force and many friends.