

Eben J. Forbes

Eben J. Forbes, 20, of Richland was pronounced dead on arrival at Oswego Hospital from injuries suffered in a motorcycle accident on Monday evening, July 14, 1975. Pulaski State Police said the Oswego county, coroner ruled death due to massive head injuries. Troopers said Mr. Forbes negotiated a curve on the North Fernwood Road, one tenth of a mile south of County Route 28 in the Town of Richland, then crossed the center line and ran off the road, striking guardrails. The motorcycle continued down an embankment, troopers said, and struck several small trees. Troopers blamed the crash on driver inexperience. The vehicle was owned by Donald C. Calvin, Richland, troopers said. Born March 7, 1955 in Oswego, he was the son of Eben A. and Nancy Yerdon Forbes. He graduated from Pulaski Academy and Central School in 1973, and Mohawk Community College in June. He was active in high school sports and was a member of the Corner's Restaurant softball team. He was employed by the Arthur Hilliker electrical firm. Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Patricia A. and Linda S., both at home, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Yerdon of Richfield.
