

Karl N. Trumble

Karl N. Trumble, 44, of Pangborn Road died Thursday from injuries received in a motorcycle accident in the town of DeWitt. Born in Fulton, Mr. Trumble lived in the Central Square area since 1952. He was a graduate of Paul V. Moore High School in Central Square. Mr. Trumble was employed as a production worker by New Venture Gear in East Syracuse for three years. He was a member of United Auto Workers Local 624. He loved to hunt and fish and was a member of several local sportsman groups. Surviving are his wife, Jeanette A.; two sons, Karl A. and William, both of Hastings; his parents, Karl F. and Joyce Priest Trumble of Hastings; his maternal grandmother, Doris Priest of Hastings; a brother, Kevin of Hastings; two sisters, Wanda J. Spagnolia and Amanda S. Hann, both of Central Square; a grandson; and several nieces and nephews.

