

Charles M. McGinn - Troop D

Trooper Charles M. McGinn died on June 20, 1927 at the age of 25 after his motorcycle collided with a car in the Village of Remsen, north of Utica. At the time of the accident, Trooper McGinn was chasing a speeding vehicle, reported to have been terrorizing the streets of Remsen, when his cycle collided with a vehicle that backed into his path from a private driveway.

Trooper McGinn joined the State Police at Troop "D", Oneida, and served the residents of northern Oneida County for the two years preceding his death.
