

Wayne "Dutch" Knight

November 21, 2008 Wayne "Dutch" Knight, 68, of Hannibal, died Friday at home. A native of Fulton, Wayne had resided in Hannibal for the past 38 years. He retired from Carpenters Local 747 in Oswego after 45 years. Wayne was an outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, snowmobiling, mo-torcycling and boating. He was an avid drag racing fan and volunteered as a track photographer at E.S.T.A. Raceway in Cicero. He was past commander of Sons of the American Legion, Prior-Stock Post 1552 in Hannibal, and past president of the Country Cruizers Car Club in Hannibal. Wayne was predeceased by his parents, Grenville and Gladys Knight, and by a sister, Sharon Samson. Surviving are his beloved wife of 48 years, Joyce Knight of Hannibal; his children, Cathy (Duncan) Johnston of Martville and Troy (Ruth) Knight of Hannibal; four grandchildren, Jenna and Alex Knight, Nickolas Moore and Samantha Stoughtenger; his sister, Gwenna (Al) Dann, and brother, Roy Knight, both of California; and several nieces and nephews.