

Jack I. Thompson

Jack I. Thompson, 73, of Phoenix, NY, passed away peacefully on Monday October 1, 2012. He was born in Phoenix to his late parents, Anne F. (Egan) and George B. Thompson on September 24, 1939. He was a USAF veteran from 1957-1961. A professional truck driver, he drove for Marcellus Casket Co. for 15 years. Prior employment included a snowplow driver for the town of Schroepfel Highway Department. Jack served as a captain and held the office of president for the Phoenix Fire Department. He enjoyed more than 52 years of loyal service to his community. He was a social member of VFW Post 5540, Phoenix; a member of the Syracuse Hog Chapter; the Star Motorcycle Club; and the Upstate Cruise

Motorcycle Club. Jack was predeceased by his loving wife, Mary Karen (Fryer) Thompson, on February 8, 2003; his son, Shaun I. Thompson, in 1999; and his brother, Gerald R. Thompson in 2005. Surviving are his son and daughter-in-law, Dean E. and Andria Thompson of Clay; another daughter-in-law, Diane Thompson of Central Square; four grandchildren, Kyle, Allyson, Chad and Brandon; a sister, Kathy Thompson Watson of Charleston, SC; several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

