

Jacquelyn L. Colarusso

Jacquelyn L. Colarusso, 51, a resident of Scriba passed away on March 31, 2011 surrounded by her loving family and friends at home. Born in Oswego, she was the daughter of Jack Thompson of Oswego and Carolyn Holmes (Roger Wallace) of Oswego. Jacquelyn was employed at SUNY Oswego. She enjoyed riding motorcycles with the AzzDogs, boating, cooking, gardening and spending time with her children and grandchildren. Surviving are her two daughters, Jamie White of Inlet, NY and Kristy Thuet of Oswego; sister, Karolyn "Candy" (Pete) McDougall of Scriba; one brother John (Kim) Thompson of Scriba; three grandchildren, Alexis Heath, Tyler Beck, and Grace Heath; aunts, Ann Smegelsky, Rita (Bob) McCormick, Theresa (Mark) Thaser, Patricia Whittier of Oswego and Elizabeth Branshaw of Oswego; uncles, James (Pam) Thompson, Dave (Carolyn) Thompson, Norman (Marlene) Holmes of Hannibal; Edward (Hazel) Holmes of Oswego; Steven (Debbie) Holmes of Fla; Robert (Wendy) Holmes of PA.