

William H. Curley - TROOP G

Trooper William H. Curley died on October 2, 1922 at the age of 35 from injuries resulting from a motor vehicle accident.

On September 26, 1922, Trooper Curley was operating his motorcycle on the Hoosick Falls-Bennington Road enroute to the Troop barracks when he collided with an oncoming car that had exhibited erratic driving behavior. As a result of the accident, Trooper Curley's leg was amputated, after which his condition gradually deteriorated and he died on October 2, 1922.

Trooper Curley served originally in Troop "K" from May 1, 1918 to March 1, 1919. He then reenlisted on June 16, 1922 in Troy where he served until his death.
