

Angelo F. Amodei III

July 4, 2012 Angelo F. Amodei III, 41, of Phoenix, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday after injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident. He was born in Syracuse and raised and educated in Phoenix. He was self-employed as an auto body repair specialist for many years. Angelo had a love for motorcycles and was a classic car enthusiast. He is survived by his loving parents, Angelo F. Jr. and Nancy (Wood) Amodei of Clay; a son, Kenneth G. Amodei of Phoenix; two stepsons, Mitchell D. Atwood of FL and Raymond Dickson of Phoenix; and his brother, Antonio "AJ" Amodei of Fulton. Also surviving are many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, and many close and loving friends.