

ABATE of Ontario

George W. "Bill" Cox

Prattsburgh, New York (1952 - 2014) George (Bill) W Cox III. Born January 22, 1952 in Providence RI. Survived by his wife of 33 years, Pamela L Cox, his children Trisha Cox and Kristina Cox. Also survived by his mother Audrey Gamble, step-father Jesse Gamble, father George Cox Jr, step-mother Roberta Cox, brothers Stephen Cox, Robert Cox, David Cox, Jeff Harris, Ed Harris, sister Debra Harris, step-sisters Tracy Lamphere, Melissa Coulter, his brother and sister in-laws, nieces, nephews, and many close longtime friends. Bill was a mechanic most of his life and was employed at Auction Direct up to his passing. Bills passion for life was his family, friends, and motorcycles. He was a member of Ontario County ABATE (American Bikers Aimed Towards Education) for 24 years, founder of New York Freedom Riders and a member of the Patriot Guards. He was dedicated to fighting for motorcycle rights. Bill was an inspiring man-caring-loyal and touched many lives. He had asked that there be no calling hours or funeral service, only that a celebration of life be held at a later date determined by his family. Ride on our loving Husband-Father-Brother-Uncle-and Friend. "We will see you when we see you"
