

Christopher M. "Hammer" Detroye

Christopher M. "Hammer" Detroye, 33, of Hillside Avenue, Porter Corners, died unexpectedly, Saturday, May 15, 2010. Born on Feb. 23, 1977, in New London, Conn. He was the son of Carolyn (Seymour) Detroye of Porter Corners and Brian Detroye and his wife, Malu, of South Carolina. Chris graduated from Corinth High School. He was employed as a union carpenter in the Albany area. Chris enjoyed hunting, fishing, motor cycle riding and spending time with his friends. He was a charmer and will be remembered for his easy going nature and living life to the fullest with that devilish look in his eyes. Survivors besides his parents include one daughter, Leah H. Detroye of Porter Corners; one brother, Nicolas D. Detroye of Hackensack, N.J.; his maternal grandparents, Harold and Barbara Seymour of Deposit, N.Y.; his paternal grandfather, Leonard Detroye of Watertown, Wisc.; and many aunts, uncles and cousins.