

Eric Jason “Doc” Bayless

Eric Jason Bayless, 37, formerly of Liverpool, NY, currently of Fort Drum, NY died from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident on June 7, 2014. Eric’s eight-year career with the U.S. Army included serving as a combat medic during a tour of duty in Afghanistan, during which time he earned his purple heart. Prior to that, he served six years with the USMC. He was a graduate of Liverpool High School, and a current member of Torn Souls Veterans Motorcycle Club of NY. Eric is survived by his parents, Edward Bayless and Deborah (Cornue) Bayless, of Liverpool, NY; brother and sister-in-law, Shannon and Kristal Bayless of Colorado Springs; nieces MacKenzie, Cora, and Kira; brother and sister-in-law, Brian and Angela Bayless of Cincinnati; nephew Caden; and many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and his beloved dog, Harley. Eric was a devoted son, brother, uncle, and Dallas Cowboys fan. He will be deeply missed by all.
