

James A. "Jim" Pare

James A. Pare, 47, of Liverpool, passed away at home on Sunday with his family by his side. Jim was born in Liverpool on July 29, 1966, to Bud and Sheila Pare. He enjoyed golfing, fishing, hunting, riding his motorcycle and playing sports with his kids. He was a loving son, brother, husband, father and grandfather. Jim worked as a financial analyst for the past 25 years for SODEXO. He is survived by his parents; his brothers, Dan and Chris; his wife, Diane; his children, Kyle (Ignazia), Kelly, Samantha, Brian, Ethan, Mathew, John Paul and Joseph and his grandchildren, Grayson and Hailey.