

John A. Angyal

John A. Angyal, 69, of Skaneateles, passed away at home May 10, 2010, after a long courageous battle with cancer. He was born in Auburn, NY, son of the former William and Virginia Angyal. John attended Auburn Schools, where he played football and was a sectional wrestling champion. He attended Auburn Community College and Syracuse University. He served in the U.S. Army as a paratrooper with the 101 Airborne Division. He retired from the New York State Police as an investigator with the BCI. He was also a member of the New York State Police Motorcycle and Scuba Teams. He served two terms as Skaneateles town justice and also served two terms as Skaneateles town supervisor. He was the founder, owner and operator of Johnny Angels Heavenly Hamburgers in Skaneateles. John was a 35-year member of the Robert Hydon American Legion Post 239 and a former member of the Rotary Club and the Symphony Guild. John was a lifelong outdoorsman and loved hunting and fishing. His hobbies also included raising orchids and cooking. John is survived by his faithful and loving wife of 46 years, Elizabeth who remained by his side; a son, U.S. Army Col. Joseph Angyal (Italy); a son, Richard Searing (Candace) of Skaneateles; a daughter, Cindy Patterson (Greig) of Lincoln, New Hampshire; five grandchildren; two sisters, Joan Clegg (CT) and Betsy Scroggins (RI). He was predeceased by brother Bill Angyal in 1997.