

Kenneth Charles Berube Jr.

May 30, 2010 Kenneth C. Berube Jr., 24, of Syracuse, passed away Sunday. He was a life resident of Syracuse. Kenny loved life and lived life to the fullest. He enjoyed riding his motorcycle and spending time with his family and friends. He will be remembered by his two quotes he used often, "Kick Rocks" and "Don't watch me, watch T.V."

Kenny was predeceased by his great-great-grandmother, Eva M. Winslow, in 1991. He is survived by his loving parents, Julie Bland and Kenneth C. Berube Sr.; his sister, whom he adored, Shannon Pugh; his maternal grandparents, Marsha George Allen and Thomas (Debbie) Bland; his paternal grandparents Janice Berube and Henry Berube; godparents, Joseph Spicer and Tracey Donovan; aunts and uncles, Colleen Bland, Melissa Bland, Mandy Hudson, Patrick Bland, Michael (Mary) Berube, Steven (Jill) Berube, Tony Berube, Kimberly Berube, Tracy (Rob) Frier, Renee (Frank) Merulla and Michelle Cerami; his girlfriend, Jessica Seib; his puppies, Domino and Mama; and many cousins and friends.