

Larry Gene Arnold

WATERTOWN — Larry Gene Arnold, 68, died Friday evening, December 2, 2011, at his home. He was born on January 5, 1943 in Natural Bridge, Town of Wilna, NY to Leland and Ivy Arnold (Ivy Pettit). He was a machinist for Wesick Mechanic Shop in Lowell, Massachusetts. He is survived by four daughters; Kelly Arnold, Nova Scotia; Sandy Arnold, Texas; Carrie and her husband Jacques Fenelon, Florida; and Amy Arnold, Nova Scotia. He is also survived by a sister, Muriel Pettit, Lowell Massachusetts. He is predeceased by three brothers and one sister; Frances Arnold, Marie Arnold, Cyril “Sonny” Arnold and Gary Arnold. He loved to cook and was extremely talented and creative in the kitchen. He enjoyed entertaining and having a good time with friends and family. His real passion was motorcycles, Harley Davidson’s in particular, however he enjoyed hunting, fishing, photography and listening to Cat Stevens and Elvis Presley.

