

Lisa A. Lloyd-Amuso

MARCY, NY, Lisa A. Lloyd-Amuso, age 51, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, November 11, 2014. Born in Utica, on December 28, 1962, Lisa was the daughter of the late Dr. Willard J. and Eileen (Houghton) Lloyd. She was raised and educated locally attending New Hartford High School. Lisa was a proud US Army Veteran. She attended McPherson College in Kansas and received her Bachelors Degree in Plant Pathology from Kansas State University. She had been previously employed at Prevalere Life Sciences, Inc. in Whitesboro. Her memberships included the New Hartford American Legion Post 1376 and the Harley Owners Group.

Lisa had a great love for nature and riding Harley motorcycles; was an avid gardener and gifted artist. Her warm and caring personality will be remembered and cherished by her family and friends. Lisa is survived by Jim Amuso of Taberg, NY; daughter, Crysta Kovach of Grovetown, GA; son, Evan M. Lloyd of Marcy; step-children, Joanne Amuso and James Amuso, III both of Little Falls; grandson, Mason Lucas Lloyd of Utica; sister, Rebecca Wittman and Ronald Moore of Utica; two brothers and a sister-in-law, Willard Lloyd of Utica and Robert and Mary Lloyd of Alabama; nieces and nephews, Robert Wittman (Mary), Luke Wittman (Erin), Charlotte Wittman (Joe), Desiree Moore and Isaiah Moore and an uncle, Karl Shue of Port Leyden, NY. Also surviving are many great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, in-laws, her dog, Maya and special friends, Donna Stephens and Bonnie and Dave Frath.