

Michael J. Singleton

Michael J. Singleton, 54, of Fort Edward, passed away Thursday, August 18, 2011, as a result of injuries sustained in a car, motorcycle accident. He was born on Dec. 21, 1956, in Burlington, Vermont, the son of Patricia (Collins) Singleton and the late James F. Singleton. Michael attended St. Mary's and Queensbury schools and later graduated from Hudson Valley Community College with an associate degree in computer science. He was the owner, operator of Tri County Computer in Queensbury. He learned to play drums in his youth and continued his love of music, playing in several bands throughout the area. He was an avid N.Y. Jets football fan. He had a passion for riding his motorcycle, and was the first to ride in any benefit run. He was a happy-go-lucky guy and was known as a free spirit. Michael's father, James F. Singleton, and his sister, Anne Marie Singleton, predeceased him.

He is survived by his mother, Patricia Singleton, of Queensbury; his wife, Kim (Wendell) Singleton; and their children Vanessa Singleton, James (Ben) Singleton, Patrick Singleton, Alice Singleton, Kasey Singleton, Zachary Singleton and Madeline Singleton, all of Fort Edward. He is also survived by his two grandsons; Benjamin Singleton of Glens Falls, and David Fudger of Fort Edward. His sister, Lorraine Sequera, and her husband, Dean, of Virginia, along with a large extended family of in-laws and friends, also survive Michael.
