

Raymond "Pete" Carswell

Raymond "Pete" Carswell, 70, of Hannibal passed away on Thursday January 30, 2014, at Oswego Hospital following a long illness. A native of Syracuse, he lived in Hannibal for the past 42 years. Pete was a retired heavy equipment operating engineer through Local #545 in Syracuse after 50 years. He had attended the Oswego Alliance Church and was a former member of the Moyers Corners Volunteer Fire Department. Pete enjoyed riding his motorcycle and was a member of the Retreads motorcycle riding club. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing. Surviving are his wife of 42 years, Lynn Crowner Carswell of Hannibal; three children, Kimberly (Jim) Foster of Victoria, Va., Scott (Monica) Pease of Barco, NC and Daniel Carswell of Hannibal; 10 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.