

Richard A. "Ricky" Atkins

Richard A. "Ricky" Atkins, 36, of West Monroe, formerly of Cicero, died Thursday, August 3, 2000, at Crouse Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Monday afternoon in Cicero. Born in Syracuse, he lived 32 years in Cicero before moving to West Monroe four years ago. He attended Cicero High School. He was a self-employed construction worker. Survivors: His companion, Erin Loveland of West Monroe; a son, Richard S. Spagnuolo of Cicero; his mother and stepfather, Isabel P. "Pat" and Charles Owens Sr. of Liverpool; his father and stepmother, Edward and Elizabeth Atkins of Cicero; a sister, Christine Owens of North Syracuse; three stepsisters, Cheryl Michaels of West Monroe, Cathy Isbell of Perryville and Linda Krupka of Nedrow; four brothers, Edward and Thomas, both of Kirkville, and Kevin and William, both of Cicero; six stepbrothers, Charles Owens Jr. and Stephen Owens, both of East Syracuse, Mark Owens of San Diego, Robert Atkins of East Syracuse and Daniel and Steven Atkins, both of Brewerton; his maternal step-grandmother, Katherine J. Owens of Syracuse.