

William Cameron Greenwood

William Cameron Greenwood, age 37, formerly of Lacona, passed away December 7, in Ketchikan, AK. He was born October 15, 1976 in Watertown, NY. He graduated from Sandy Creek Central School in 1994, and from the State University of New York at Morrisville. William served in the United States Army, and received an honorable discharge in 1996. He was employed as an ultrasonic technician by Sonic Systems Int'l, and as a videographer (part-time) with KPU Telecommunications. He moved to Ketchikan in 2007, and was married to Melinda Marie Foulz on January 30, 2013. William was a Professional Association of Diving Instructors dive master. He enjoyed scuba diving, fishing, hiking, motorcycle riding, archery and photography. "William loved his family and enjoyed cook-outs, boating and spending time with them, and with his beloved basset hound, Ernieboy," his family writes. "He enjoyed adventure and sharing his adventures with those he loved through stories and photos. "He had a zest for life, and was always trying to make the world a better place," according to his family, and his wife lovingly referred to him as "my life, my love, my Brat." Surviving are his wife, Melinda Marie Greenwood of Ketchikan; son, Michael R. Miller of Ketchikan; stepson, Tyler J.E. Miller of Clarksville, TN; his mother, Becky Greenwood of Lacona; his father, Floyd (Connie Izzo) Greenwood of Clay; sister, Sarah (Doug) Bristol of Lacona; nieces, Morgan and Mickayla; nephew, Matthew; aunt, Earle (Carl) Stone of Pulaski; and aunts, uncles, cousins, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law and numerous friends all over the country. William was predeceased by his grandfather, Ernie Slater; grandmother, Charlotte Slater; cousin, Tracy Ackerman; stepson, Tevin Anthony Geike; and father-in-law, Paul A. Grenon.
