

Christopher Michael Fleischman

NEWARK - Christopher "Chris" Michael Fleischman, 34, entered eternal rest unexpectedly on Saturday (June 13, 2015) as a result of a motorcycle accident. Chris was born the son of Michael and Denise (Ball) Fleischman on Tuesday, April 28, 1981, in Canandaigua, N.Y. He was a graduate of Letchworth High School. Chris served as a SGT in the U.S. Army serving three combat tours of duty. The funeral home proudly flies the Army Flag in honor of his service to our country. After serving in the Army, Chris made his home in Newark, N.Y. He loved to hunt, fish, ride motorcycles and just having a good time. Chris was an active member of the Newark VFW and had close ties to the Naples VFW. He was also a member of the Blue Star Riders, Wayne County Motorcycle Club and Lyons Rod and Gun Club. Chris worked for Montemorano Brothers in Clyde, New York, as a truck driver. Chris will be sadly missed by family and friends. Chris will be lovingly remembered by his sons, Jared and Michael; mother and step-father, Denise (Ball) and William Boughton of Naples; father and step-mother, Michael and Carol (McIntyre) Fleischman of Newark; sisters, Melissa and Olivia; brother, Jason; mother of his children, Sheenalyn Hogan; several nieces and nephews.
