

Donald F. "Dumper" Woodard Jr.

Donald F. "Dumper" Woodard Jr., 71, of Fulton passed away peacefully Monday at home surrounded by family. He was born in Santa Barbara, California to the late Donald F. and Evelyn (Harris) Woodard. He has been a resident of Fulton all of his life. Mr. Woodard retired in 1999 from Niagara Mohawk as a chief maintenance foreman where he had 34 years of service. After retirement he owned and operated DW Bodee's Bar and Restaurant, Fulton for eight years. Mr. Woodard was a member of the Hannibal American Legion Post #1552, and the Hannibal American Legion Riders. He enjoyed his motorcycle and loved to ride. He was also an avid pool player, skier and hunter. Mr. Woodard helped begin the livestock/farm program with Fr. McVey at Unity Acres which allowed the residents to have a self-sustained food supply within their establishment, allowing them further independence from outside sources. He is survived by his wife of 50 years Sandra (Thompson) Woodard of Fulton; three children, Denise (Terry) Carr of Phoenix, Timothy (Joanne) Woodard of Oswego, Donald (Tammy) Woodard III of Va.; three sisters, Evelyn (Gordon) Infantine of Rensselaer Falls, N.Y., Rosemary Woodard of Fulton, and Beatrice (David) Lathrop of Lacona, N.Y.; 10 grandchildren, Stephanie, Samantha, Sean, Courtney and Jessica, Shannon, and Timmy and Sara, Julie, and Donald; eight great-grandchildren; and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

