

Lynette M. Short Brady

Lynette M. Short Brady, 47, passed away unexpectedly Monday, September 29, 2014 at her home in Elbridge, after facing the toughest battle of her life, trying to recover from multiple injuries sustained from a motorcycle accident in June 2013. She was born in Auburn on October 7, 1966. The daughter of the late Thomas Short and Cheryl Ford Short, of Weedsport, she was a graduate of Cato-Meridian High School. Lynette received an associate's degree in nursing from Cayuga Community College and her bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Keuka College. She had most recently been employed at Crouse Hospital as a Registered Nurse and Substance Abuse Counselor, (CASAC). Lynette was very active with her family and in her children's lives. She, her wife, Aymee, and their children were often called the Brady Bunch with two moms. She was an active supporter of Weedsport football, a NASCAR fan; she had a great gift of helping those in need. She loved camping, fishing, sunsets, traveling, and often spent time riding her motorcycle. She was a New York Giants football fan, and enjoyed playing football with her family. Lynette will be greatly missed by her family. She is survived by her wife, Aymee Allen Brady; their children, Morgan Taylor, Brian Belles Jr., Michael Taylor, Alexys Belles, Zachary Taylor, and Cameron Belles; her mother, Cheryl Short; brothers, Kenneth (Michelle) Short, Thomas (Valerie) Short, all of Weedsport, and Timothy (Kelly) Short, of Montezuma; many nieces and nephews, and her pets that she adored.
