

Ronald J. “RJ” Boulerice

Ronald J. Boulerice (R.J.), from Weedsport, born May 14, 1958, passed away March 5, 2015 after battling many years with heart disease issues. Ronald was 56 years old. He is the son of Rolland J. Boulerice and Fern E. Jennings, of Weedsport. He was a tractor-trailer driver for several years and most recently a school bus driver for the Port Byron School District. Ronald is survived by his daughters, Angela and Haley; his sons, Gage (9 year old) and Connor (6 years old); his mother, Fern; and dad, Jason; two brothers, Dan (Cindy) Boulerice and Tim Boulerice; two sisters, Tammy (Matt) Seager and Valerie Clarke; several nieces and nephews; two grand-daughters, Zionna and Emma; and a grandson, Landon. He was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Alma and Ralph Krebs; and paternal grandparents, Mary and Ernest Boulerice; and his brothers of the legacy, Ron Pelky and John Vanderstein. His children were his life and love, he also had a love for riding motorcycles. Special friends, Chili and Sue and so many more, he will leave with sad and broken hearts.