

ABATE of Columbia

Bruce E. "Fever" Radliff

Bruce Edward Radliff, 57, also known as "Fever" and "Chief," from Troy, died Sunday, August 5, 2007 at his home surrounded by his loving family. Born in Albany, Bruce was the son of Jeannette Haupt of Anchorage, Alaska and the late Wilbur W. Radliff. He was a graduate of Ravena Coeymans Selkirk High School and served with the U.S. Navy in Vietnam. Bruce worked for Callanan Industries in So. Bethlehem and was a former member of the Selkirk Fire Department, Station 3 in South Bethlehem. Since 1993, he worked for the Norlite Corporation in Cohoes. Bruce was a member of the Operating Engineers Local 106. He was a member of Columbia County ABATE. In addition to his mother, Bruce is survived by his children, Shannon Radliff and Michael J. Radliff, his wife Jackie and their daughter Amber, all of Stuyvesant Falls. He is also survived by Valerie Martin and her children of Troy. Other survivors include three sisters, Lucinda Radliff of Anchorage, Alaska, Beverley Helmke of Ft. Myers, Fla. and Eve Story of Ocala, Fla.; and four nephews and a niece.

Selkirk Fire Department

Proudly Serving Since 1928

