

Bryan Herbert & Cynthia Marie Blomgren

Bryan Herbert Blomgren, 55, and Cynthia "Cindy" Marie (Coppola) Blomgren, 57, passed away suddenly on July 18, 2015. They married on July 28th, 2012, and anyone that met Bryan and Cindy could instantly see that they were perfect for each other. They both had big hearts, a desire to live life to the fullest and with an undeniable love for family, friends and animals. Bryan and Cindy were also very giving people who enjoyed donating to, and helping out various charities. One of their favorite ways to raise money for charities involved riding their motorcycle for Toys for Tots, Breast Cancer and Veterans runs. No matter what, any day was a great day to ride and you could always bet on seeing Bryan and Cindy out on their bikes. Bryan was currently employed at RJ Valente Gravel Company and Cindy was currently employed at Computer Sciences Corporation. Bryan is survived by his mother, Camilla Blomgren; daughters, Andrea and Kathryn Blomgren; his brother, Theodore (Catherine) Blomgren; as well as his nieces, Sarah and Rebecca Blomgren. He was predeceased by his father, Theodore Blomgren. Cindy is survived by her father, Dominick Coppola; son, Dustin (Heather Straight) Cuoco; daughter, Concetta (Austin Martin) Cuoco; brothers, Claude (Donna) Coppola, Donald (Patricia) Coppola and Clyde (Alberta) Coppola. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews and cousins. Cindy was predeceased by her mother, Elinor Coppola. Both Bryan and Cindy are survived by many friends and motorcycle community.

"Forever, For Always & No Matter What"

