Edward K. "Ed" Fink

Edward "Ed" K. Fink, 68, of East Greenbush, passed away peacefully on Sunday April 6, 2014 at Evergreen Commons where he was currently a resident. Born November 19, 1945 in Albany, Ed was the son of the late Edward H. and Loretta (McNary) Fink. He was a manager at the Hamilton Printing Company in Castleton, a position he retired from after over 40 years of dedicated service. Ed was very interested in his family history and genealogy and spent many hours researching his own ancestors. He was a charter member of the ABATE of New York and organized their first motorcycle rally. Ed is survived by his loving children, Marcy A. (Frenchy) Louprette of Coxsackie, Lisa (Bill) Arsenault of Averill Park, Edward M. (Christine) Fink of East Greenbush and Victoria (Chad) Harn of Albany and his nine cherished grandchildren, Mark, Ciara, Katelyn, Jacquelyn, Hailey, Ethan, Kayla, Quinton and Caylee as well as his siblings, Loretta (Gary) Perrier of Latham and Lawrence "Larry" Fink of Albany.
