

Glenda Sage "Chili" Rush

Glenda Sage Rush Staff Sergeant, United States Air Force. "Our Shining Star is Back in Heaven!" Glenda Sage Rush-Everill, age 26, passed away on April 10, 2005. Born February 24, 1979 to Dennis Everill and Linda Sue Hinton in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was angel wings with a cross. Sage loved being in the military, received the Honor Ribbon in basic training and made sergeant before three years. Sage did a lot of volunteer work for the American Cancer Society, Meals on Wheels and donated from every pay check to the Soft Cleft Palate Foundation. She went to school at the Emery-Riddle Aeronautical Tech. School. Sage loved life and lived it to the fullest. Everyone she touched in life loved her. She will be deeply missed by everyone who loved her. She brought light into every room she walked into. She was extremely devoted to Jesus Christ, Our Savior. She loved her mother more than anyone else in the world. Their relationship was extraordinary. Survived by her mother; brothers and sisters, John David Hochstrasser, Barry Wayne Hochstrasser, Barbara Lou (Joseph) McNeil, Donna Sue (Brandon) Holt, Lisa Lynn (Crystal) Hanson, Darrin Everill, Selena (Randy) Maxfield. She was preceded in death by fathers: Dennis E. Everill and Edward Cyrus Rush.

