

Joseph D. Skilinskis

Joseph D. Skilinskis, 67, a resident of Oswego, died Sunday June 29, 2014, at home. Mr. Skilinskis was born in Fulton and was the son of the late Joseph and Marion Henderson Skilinskis. He was the husband of the late Constance Mason Skilinskis. He found passion in homemade engineering through crafting his own custom motorcycles and was and a devout and respected mechanic. He enjoyed studying gemology with his wife and in his later years traveling with friends. He is survived by his two daughters, Debra Elmer of Scriba and Lorie (George) Seaton of Scriba; a son, Joseph W. (Irene) Skilinskis of Scriba; 21 brothers and sisters; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.