

John J. Mackin

John J. Mackin, 61, of Schenectady, died suddenly Sunday, April 28, 2013. Born in Schenectady on May 20, 1951, he was the son of the late Joseph J. and Phyllis MacDonald Mackin and beloved husband of the late Michele Costello Mackin. He is the brother of the late Francis C. Mackin. John was a lifelong resident of Schenectady. He worked for the General Electric Company for 37 years, retiring in 2009. John was a member of the John F. Kennedy Division #1, Ancient Order of Hibernians and a proud member of their degree team. He also belonged to the Knights of Columbus and the IUE-CWA Local 301. Left to cherish his memory are his sons, John (Jay) Mackin and his wife, Kelly, Jeremy Mackin, Jamie Mackin and his wife, Tina, Daniel Vergine and Sean Costello. John is also survived by his beloved grandchildren, Kayleigh and Ryan Mackin, Allie Mackin and Kasey Krakat, Kayla Baker, Kaitlyn Hernandez, Riley and Jamie Mackin; and one great-granddaughter, Aubree Baker. He is the uncle of Brandon Mackin, Marsino Zandri II and Morgan Murdza. John is survived by his sister, Mary K. Mackin; his aunt, Ardis MacDonald, and several cousins. He is also survived by his ex-wife and loving friend, Pamela Vergine and her husband, Dennis Vergine. Ride on our dear father, brother and friend.
