

Kathleen A. & Dennis A. Haughney Jr.

Kathleen A. Brady Haughney and Dennis A. Haughney, Jr., both 41, of Pleasantdale, sweethearts since the seventh grade, passed away on Sunday, May 24, 2015 while out for a beautiful ride with friends on their Harley Davidson. Both Kathy and Denny were born in Troy and educated in the Lansingburgh Schools. Kathleen was the daughter of the late James J. and Helen A. Cote Brady and Dennis was the son of Darlene Mysliwicz Haughney of Pleasantdale and the late Dennis A. Haughney, Sr. Kathy was employed by the Rensselaer County Department of Social Services in North Greenbush and at the Beverage Barn in Lansingburgh while Denny was employed by the Lansingburgh Central School District and had formerly been employed at Gardenway and Comfortex. Kathleen and Dennis were married in St. Augustine's Church on November 8, 1997 and enjoy every day of their marriage. Active in their community, they shared a love for and were both members of the Pleasantdale Rod & Gun Club where Denny served on the Board of Directors for several five year terms. He was also a member and Fire Commissioner for numerous five year terms with the Pleasantdale Volunteer Fire Company. Denny was known by all as "The Mayor of Pleasantdale". He was always willing and lending a helping hand to those in need of snowplowing, lawn mowing and small engine repairs. Kathleen and Dennis are the devoted parents of their loving children, Haley and Nickolas Haughney, both of Pleasantdale. Kathleen is survived by her siblings; Theresa A. Brady and James W. Brady, both of Troy and Roxane M. (Valentino) Fiacco of East Greenbush. Dennis is survived by his siblings, Christopher J. (Heidi) Haughney of Pleasantdale and Tiffany M. (Mark) Haughney-Morine of Brunswick and his Aunt and Uncle, Mary and Jim Bartlett of Schaghticoke. Kathleen and Dennis are also survived a very special young man who was like another son, Joseph M. Forhan, U.S.M.C., as well as several additional aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

