

Niagara ABATE

Lisa A. Knowlton-Wilburn

Lisa A. Knowlton-Wilburn, age 60, of Lynchburg, TN, formerly of Grand Island, NY, passed away Wednesday, August 19, 2015 at her residence. Lisa, a native of Niagara Falls, NY, was the daughter of the late Samuel and Dean Long. Lisa was pre-deceased by Sonny Knowlton, her husband of over twenty years. Lisa is survived by many that loved her, including Peggy Juckett, Scott and Dawn

Knowlton, Nickie Martin, Jean and Josh Martin-Strayer and many nieces, nephews and grandnieces and nephews. Also survived by paternal cousin Linda Rossitto and her daughter Christina Rossitto. Having retired from Travelers Insurance Company, Lisa recently moved to Lynchburg, Tennessee, where she is survived by her husband, John Wilburn of Lynchburg; three stepdaughters, Terry Wilburn of Lynchburg, Tracy Parker and her husband, Tab of Jacksonville, Florida and Tangel Taylor and her husband, Matt of Lynchburg; seven grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. Lisa was an avid motorcycle rider and had served as President of the Niagara County, New York Chapter of A.B.A.T.E. (American Bikers Aimed Toward Education) for many years. She is also survived by her beloved "sisters" with whom she rode with as the PIG Girls, (Pride, Integrity and Guts). Lisa had a lot of love in her heart for her dog, Angel and her horse, Sir Charles. Those Blessed enough to have known Lisa Knowlton-Wilburn, will never lose her precious gift of love and laughter. She had passion for doing what she loved and loving those around her deeply and completely. Lisa will be missed. Ride like the wind my love, JW.