Michael C. Angelo

Michael C. Angelo, age 50, of Binghamton, went to be with the Lord and Savior on September 9, 2005 at home after a short illness with cancer. Michael is the son of Lewis and Pauline Angelo, Chenango Forks. He is survived by his daughter, Corrine Angelo; and her mother, Debbie; and the apple of his eye, his grandson, Michael Anthony Angelo. He also leaves behind his sisters, Sharon and Vickie; and his brother, Patrick; his sister, Lynne and Bill Stevenson; brother, Michael and Laurie Boland; and his loving soulmate, Emily Neadom, although those who love him, miss him dearly, we know his is in the loving arms of the Lord. Michael was employed by New York State Department of Transportation. He also was a member of A.B.A.T.E. and the HOG Club. His greatest enjoyment was motorcycling and deer hunting with his dad.
