

Raymond D. Pond

Raymond D. Pond, 32, of Syracuse, died Sunday, August 3, 1997 in a motorcycle accident on Route 20 in the town of Onondaga. He was a native and life resident of Syracuse. Mr. Pond was employed as a welder by Jaquith Industries and also taught adult education at Central Tech. Surviving are his fiancée, Maureen Donaldson of Syracuse; his mother, Alice Whitmore Pond of Syracuse; his father and stepmother, Raymond E. and JoAnn Pond of Cato; a sister, Donna Pond, and a brother, Richard, both of Syracuse; a niece; a nephew; three uncles and his maternal grandmother, Eliza Whitmore of Three Mile Bay.

