

Richard H. Cowsert

Richard H. Cowsert, born September 11, 1943, currently residing in Deland, Florida and formerly of Amsterdam, New York. He suddenly passed away on January 1, 2014. He is survived by his loving family: wife, Christine Aulisi Cowsert and her son, Tyler; children, Rick and wife Beth, Garrett, Lisa and their mother Carol; also survived by grandchildren, Shawnee, Tyler, Elia, Crais; and his brother, Garrett (Theresa). Rick was a retired New York State trooper, a member of the Masons, OTHG New York and American Legion Riders Post 6 of Deland, Florida. Besides his family, he always enjoyed spending time with his beloved pets. He was a rescue advocate for animals and is survived by rescue dog, Victor. He most recently was predeceased by his faithful companions, Titan, Zeus and Snowball. He loved to ride and repair motorcycles, build and restore his Model A, and go for his daily morning coffee at Pat's Place with his friends. If you were lucky enough to have met Rick, you knew the meaning of a true friend. He was a loving, caring, dependable and generous man who was always there to help anyone in need. Rick was the "Go to Guy" for his family, friends and even people he had just met.
