

ABATE Officer

Sandi Collaro

Sandi Collaro of Middletown New York, died suddenly on Sunday, August 10, 2008 at Orange Regional Medical Center, Horton Campus, Middletown, New York. She was 46. The daughter of the late Edward and Rita Kaplan Kristel she was born on January 9, 1962 in Brooklyn, NY. She moved to the area in 1985 and married Joseph Collaro, August 8, 1999 in Middletown. Sandi worked for Miron Building Supply in Monticello. She was shy, but firm in her opinions. She enjoyed riding her motorcycle with her husband and friends and was an officer in ABATE - American Bikers Aimed Toward Education. Sandi is survived by her loving husband, Joe at home; and three granddaughters, Alexa, Isabelle, and Samantha, as well as many friends. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Sandi's name may be made to the American Heart Association, 419 East Main Street, Middletown, NY 10940.