

Clifford K. “Cliff” Frost

Clifford K. “Cliff” Frost, Formerly of Watertown, NY, died in Tavares, Florida, April 21, 1984, at the age of 31 from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident. He was born June 14, 1952, in Watertown, New York the son of Herbert F. and Ellen (Connie) Ralph Frost. He graduated from Indian River Central School in 1970. He married Jo-Ann Makuch in 1975 and the couple moved in October 1979 to Florida. While in Florida he started working as a truck driver for a while and then became self-employed in a wholesale fern business. He became a proud father of a son Matthew born October 22, 1983. He was an avid motorcyclist and had many like-minded friends. His friends and family members including a brother and five sisters fondly remember him for his outgoing personality and have many tales of his dry humor and comedic adventures.